

Letter from Hon. J. M. Kelley.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, Jan. 23, 1868.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: As Yolo county (Woodland in particular) seems determined to build a railroad for the purpose of obtaining an outlet—of which she is deprived a great portion of the year—and as I understand there is a project on foot to build a road from Woodland, due east to the Sacramento river, I have, in compliance with a request, obtained information from what I deem a reliable source, that the California Pacific Railroad (commonly known as the Vallejo and Marysville Railroad) will be built—at least to Sacramento city—in a short time, and also extended from Pata Creek to Marysville in a reasonable time. I am now requested by interested parties to favor a Bill providing for an election in Yolo county in April or May, to decide whether the county will donate one hundred thousand dollars in bonds—payable in twenty years, bearing interest from date—to said road, on the following conditions: 1.—That the Company will build the road from Pata Creek, through the town of Woodland and to Knight's Landing, and make a depot at each place. 2.—That they will finish the road from Pata Creek to the town of Washington; also from Pata Creek, through Woodland, to Knight's Landing before they will require one dollar of the bonds.

Now, the question, in my opinion, is a matter of dollars and cents to the people of your county. Whether it is better for private individuals to build a road from Woodland to the Sacramento river at a cost estimated at $100,000, and own and control the same, or donate to the California Pacific Railroad Company $100,000 in county bonds, payable in twenty years, with interest, and have a road running through the central portion of the county. Having no desire to argue the case, I merely wish to lay it before the people and let them have a free interchange of opinions on the subject, that I may act advisedly in the premises, for I am not disposed to run the county to an expense of holding an election to decide any proposition that in my opinion would be rejected. It is argued, by the parties interested, that the Company would not touch their property—which will necessarily be brought into the county—to counterbalance the interest on the bonds, and that the proposed road will greatly enhance the value of the taxable property in the county.

J. M. KELLEY.

WANTS IT REPEALED.—The Shasta Courier (Rep.) is clamorous for the absolute repeal of the Registry Law. It says the expense of holding elections has been greatly increased under its requirements; and, as to the question of preventing illegal voting, it is of the opinion that far less of this has been done heretofore than is generally supposed; and even if all the evils ever alleged in that particular were true, the maintenance of the Registry Law would certainly be a decidedly expensive way of preventing or correcting such abuse. It is somewhat remarkable that—while before the election every Democratic paper was bitterly opposed to the law and every Republican paper strongly in favor of it—since the election, several Republican papers desire to have it repealed, and none have much to say in its favor; but the Democratic papers simply wish it modified.—[Morning Call.

GO DOWN.—The N. H. Free Press thinks there are two papers which will go down to posterity with great favor. One is the Emancipation Proclamation, and the other the Reconstruction Bill, recognizing negro equality. If posterity shall happen to take any cognizance of this prediction, it will pass its author as a fool. Unmistakable calamities have followed both these measures; and nothing can save the first from the abhorrence it merits but the abrogation of the other. Slavery is not to be re-established, but God intended that the negro should occupy a subordinate position, and he will do it. The Reconstruction Bill contravenes the "higher law," and it won't stand. It is not denied that it may be sustained by bayonets so long as the money lasts; but the taxpayers begin to feel the burden, and the negro will soon drop to his proper place, or fare worse.—[Mountain Democrat.

REFORM AMONG TEMPERANCES.—There is to be a reform in this office after New Year, for the printers, ah, the printers—they that set type in the lonely watches of the night—are to proceed in a body to the Good Templars hall and connect themselves with the society. Bacchus, fare thee well! We are no longer worshippers at thy shrine. Good bye, Mr. Tyler; down our gullet no more of our "halves," shall go. Temperance, all hail! We devote ourselves hereafter to thee.—[Virginia Enterprise.

WE congratulate the types of the Enterprise office, and in behalf of the Good Templars in the Independent office, extend the hand of brotherhood.—[Stock Independent.

"Tis well. The representatives of the "Banner" Lodge, in the Democrat office also send greeting.

"DRAWING IT MILD."—The World has a quiet and brief method of illustrating a scrimmage. For example, it says: Mr. Underwood, an honest farmer of Columbus, Ohio, becoming animated in a discussion with Mr. Welder, ditto of ditto, emphasized his remarks with a pitchfork on Mr. Welder's head, having previously rendered that globe pulpy and penetrable by pounding it with a stone. Mr. Welder was supposed to be mortally hurt and Mr. Underwood was arrested.

EMINENT TYPOS.—Somebody wishes to see James Buchanan, Horace Greeley, John W. Forney, Simon Cameron, Schuyler Colfax, Thurlow Weed and Robert Bonner, engaged in setting up 10,000 ems of type—a good day's work—for a wage of five thousand dollars each. These eminent men formerly earned their daily bread as printers.

THE DAVENPORT (Iowa) Literary Society is "out" some hundred dollars by Senator Sumner's non-fulfillment of his lecture engagement there. They accordingly sent him a bill of damages recently, and in reply he sent them his printed speech "Are we a nation?"

THE FIRST TASTE.—"Horse oil," instead of butter, is frequently used in dressing vegetables in Paris. The first taste of it makes a man feel like trotting away from the table.

March 4th, 1868.

For the "Democrat."

The Railroad Project.

No date in the future history of the United States will be regarded with more interest and earnest solicitude, than the fourth day of March, 1868. On that day an event will, in all probability, transpire that will affect the destiny of the nation, perhaps for ages to come. In the great struggle the people are now making to free themselves from the power of tyrannical usurpation, mere love of party is merged into a broader feeling of halcyon reverence for the old Constitution, and the character of the man who is to be installed with the duties of President on inauguration day, is a question now treated with more prayerful consideration than ever before since the days of trial, when George Washington was selected to occupy the Presidential chair of a free people. And the same unwavering devotion to Constitutional principles which nerved the patriot, and crowned his efforts with success in that experiment of self-government, is induced in the hearts of the people to-day, in their endeavors to free themselves from the yoke of despotism that has come upon them like a thief in the night, and which threatens to destroy every privilege and immunity secured by the sacred Revolution.

The idea of November, the prelude to the more important event of the inauguration in which the hope of the patriot is centered, are regarded with extraordinary interest by all not blinded with fanaticism, and who desire the future prosperity of the country. The time has gone by for idly trusting in the caprices of reckless innovators in official position. Confidence can only be reposed in a representative standard-bearer who is imbued by nature with a love of Constitutional liberty, and who has the capacity and will to restore to the people all the rights and privileges comprehended in the object of his own devotion. The elevation of such a statesman to the Presidency is within the power of Democracy, to whom the Christian world is now looking for a solution of the difficulties that beset us, and which threaten the utter destruction of the Government.

In view of the great value of the object to be attained, and the importance of transmitting to a future generation the trust that has been confidently reposed in us, there is no time to be lost in inaction; there must be no delay in making preparations for the coming contest upon which depends the existence of the Union and the preservation of liberty. Were the question involved in that contest to be decided by a free expression of the legitimate voice of the people, there could be no doubt that its result would be heralded by the joyful acclamations of a nation witnessing the return of fellowship and good will to bind the shattered fragments of a bleeding country in bonds of an effectual and lasting union. But when it is remembered that nearly half a million American citizens have been disfranchised, and that an equal number of ignorant, degraded negroes have been endowed with the sacred rights of suffrage, and that these and other flagrant violations of justice will be used as an engine of power in the hands of an unprincipled party to further its ends of unholy ambition, it cannot be denied that the whole strength of the Democratic party will be required to restore and defend the old landmarks of our Government, upon which are based the rights of an outraged people.

No blessing can be secured without a struggle; and with such a responsibility as this resting upon the action of Democracy, no other argument need be advanced for the necessity of vigilance and activity on their part. It is time now that organization should be complete and preparations begun, in order that viper-like destructionists, nerved by insane sectional hatred and mad devotion to their ebony god, may be hurled from power, and that the date which heads these remarks may be the beginning of a glorious re-union of patriots engaged in the work of political reform.

GOOD TEMPLARS' ORPHAN ASYLUM.—In the office of the Secretary of State, on the 17th instant, a certificate of incorporation of the Orphans' Homestead Association was filed. The locality is fixed in Vallejo township, Solano county, on the Hannibal ranch, it being contemplated to purchase one hundred and three acres of said ranch and improvements thereon. Twenty acres will be donated to the Grand Lodge of Good Templars of the State of California, for the purpose of establishing an orphan asylum there. The remaining eighty-three acres will be divided into 334 lots, suitable for homesteads, and be distributed among the shareholders. The proceeds of sale of homesteads will be devoted to the erection of buildings on the above mentioned twenty acres. The capital stock is fixed at $33,400, divided into shares of $170. The duration of the corporation is fixed at two years from date of filing the certificate of incorporation in Solano county.

LEGISLATIVE.—In the Senate, January 18th, Beach offered a resolution directing the State Hospital Committee to visit the State Reform School, to investigate and report upon certain charges of cruelty and inhumanity preferred against the Superintendent of that institution by the Sacramento Union, November 16, 1867. The resolution was adopted.

PRISON AND REMONSTRANCE.—In the Assembly, January 18th, Hon. J. M. Kelley presented a petition in favor of repealing the present stock law of Yolo county; also a remonstrance against the repeal of said law, both of which were signed by a number of the citizens of Yolo, and were referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

THANKS.—We are again placed under obligations to Senator Mixer and Representative Kelley for valuable State papers.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: Speaking of railroads, in your last issue you say: "Our columns are open to a free discussion of the subject." Taking advantage of this generous offer to devote a portion of your valuable paper to a subject not exclusively in the interest of the great Democratic party, I desire to make a few suggestions which perhaps would be well to consider upon before definitely determining on any particular route for the construction of a railroad for the convenience and accommodation of the inhabitants of our county.

Three schemes are on foot, each of which is beginning to assume a tangible shape—the feasibility of which we propose separately to consider, designating them as the Vallejo, the Woodland, and the Sacramento schemes. Not taking into consideration the stock that has been subscribed by the counties through which the Vallejo road is proposed to be built, and the foolish expenditure of the funds thus raised; nor bestowing a moment's thought upon the very many sayings which have been uttered and published for the last eight years, which of themselves would form an amusing if not an instructive volume upon the subject of Vallejo railroads, we propose to take things as we find them, ignoring all reference to the past.

The proprietors of the Vallejo road propose running from that point to some point on Pata Creek, near the southern line of the county, thence across the tules to Sacramento, and eventually to connect said point on Pata Creek with Woodland and Knight's Landing. Now, we are ready to concede that if there were no other means of transportation of goods to and from San Francisco than by railroad, this road would accommodate more of the people of Yolo county than any other scheme proposed; but, as it happens, railroads are neither the only, nor the cheapest means of transportation, as I shall endeavor to show in the course of this communication.

I am told that the Vallejo Company will build the road only upon the condition that Yolo county will make them a donation of one hundred thousand dollars. To this modest proposition, we would say: If your road will pay, you are at liberty to build it; and if it will not pay, our humble advice would be to abandon the project. They say that the construction of a railroad through Yolo county would be adding much to the taxable property of the county, and in time it would receive back the $100,000 in taxes. That is probable and very plausible, but let us see how the principle will work. I want to establish a lumber-yard, a machine-shop, a door, sash and blind factory at Woodland. Such an institution would add much to the taxable property of the county. It would enable those who have use for the articles kept to obtain them at all seasons of the year; it would be an improvement that would enhance the value of real estate, and be of great advantage to the people of the county. It will cost me one hundred thousand dollars to establish myself in the business, which is more money than I am able to stand on hand. NEWS SUMMARY.

STATE NEWS.—Last Sunday was the twentieth anniversary of the discovery of gold, by Marshall, in California. O. G. Hiden, of Sacramento county, has become insane and proclaimed himself the Son of God. A meeting of silk culturists was held in Sacramento last Monday evening. The "Black Crook" is having a good run at the Metropolitan Theater in Sacramento. R. McBride, an old and esteemed citizen of Sierra county, had his leg badly broken on the 18th instant, by being thrown violently from his horse. A Frenchman named Roland, supposed to have been murdered, was found dead in the bed of Webber creek, on Thursday of last week. A Chinaman was frozen to death recently between Quincy and Indian Valley. A gay young man in Nevada, named Condon, has been compelled to pay $2,000 for promising to marry Miss Collins and failing to fulfill the contract. The California Pioneers, in San Francisco, have purchased a lot on Sutter and Montgomery streets for $40,000. Robitcheck waived an examination on the charge of murder. There were 43 deaths in San Francisco last week. George Gordon has recovered judgment against the San Francisco Sugar Refinery in the sum of $392,649 63. Frank Murphy, harbor pilot, was seriously injured by the running away of his horses, near the Cliff House, on the ocean beach. The Alpine Chronicle says the late storm was the most disastrous that has visited that part of the world. Ephraim Pratt was caved on in his claim near Georgetown, El Dorado county, on the 17th instant, and killed. Oregon apples are very scarce in the market, and have advanced fifty per cent. in price. The Hebrew Benevolent Society of Stockton will give its fifth annual masquerade ball on the 6th of March. A new county will probably be carved out of Santa Clara and Monterey, with Gilroy for the county seat. Governor Haight has commissioned William J. Graves as Notary Public for San Luis Obispo county. The Rev. Mr. Brotherton was thrown from his buggy in San Francisco, on Monday last, and, it is feared, fatally injured. The Governor has commissioned B. D. Horr as Notary Public for Stanislaus county, to reside at Knight's Ferry. Judge Turner has resigned the Judgeship of the Eighth District. The United States steamer Pensacola went up to Mare Island on Friday of last week. The Rev. Dr. Lee, late of the Spring Valley Episcopal Church, sailed for China by the last steamer, as a missionary in that land.

Mr. McCormick, the inventor of the reaper, is in Paris, in very distressed circumstances; he has only $150,000 a year. Very poor, indeed!

The Humboldt Register says Beechy has now four hundred horses on his line, and he sends passengers through with great speed.

In the several unincorporated rights in this State, to wit: Yolo, San Joaquin and Sacramento counties. By the use of this Tube, a Well is obtained at less cost than the labor of digging. The Wells are permanent, convenient, require no cleaning, and will endure for ages without cost for repairs.

Any man with the will and strength to wield a sledge-hammer, can, unaided, make from $10 to $60 per day, every day he may labor, at putting down these wells, and have a money monopoly for fifteen years and three months. The patent was issued in May last, as an improvement on all Tubed Wells. In nine months' time it has been introduced, and is now in use in every State in the Union, excepting Nevada and Oregon. The Well can be seen and tested in this city.

TOWN AND COUNTY MATTERS.

MECHANICAL INDUSTRY.—There is nothing that furnishes more conclusive evidence of the prosperity of a town or city than the industry displayed in its mechanical pursuits. The labor of the mechanic is secondary to the business of the other class, in building up and sustaining the wealth and respectability of any community, and especially has this fact been realized among the leading causes which have led to the rapid growth of Woodland, which, but a few years ago, consisted of a few scattering dwellings, without even a name, and which might have remained so had not her business men and mechanics hammered out a character that now attaches an importance to the town, both at home and abroad. As public journalists we take pride in referring to this fact, and will always be found ready to co-operate with those upon whose energy and industry a continuation of this healthy state of affairs depends. We visited several business establishments this week, to all of which we desire to refer when an opportunity presents itself, having only time to speak of one of the leading firms, in this article. G. J. Ovenshiner & Co., engaged in the manufacture of wagons, carriages and blacksmithing, in all of its branches, have won for themselves a commendable reputation by their untiring energy and a thorough knowledge of their line of business. Extensive additions have lately been made to the different departments of their trade, and the establishment, as it now stands, is well worthy of a visit from those interested in the success of such an undertaking. The new building (40x60 feet), in the rear of the front shop, is equally divided into two departments by a partition running lengthwise, one of which is occupied by competent workmen engaged in wagon, carriage and sign painting; the other is devoted to the purpose of seasoning lumber, a branch of business that has been seriously neglected in California, and this fact readily accounts for the great demand heretofore existing for vehicles and machines of Eastern manufacture. The most complete arrangements are made, and careful attention bestowed in securing this valuable advantage. After undergoing a thorough seasoning process, this lumber is conveyed to the shop fronting on Main street where it is converted into the various purposes for which it is designed. In this department, blacksmithing is also carried on by competent workmen under the supervision of Mr. O., who is himself a practical workman in wood and iron. That which most attracted our attention here was the iron work on an express wagon which is being built for one of the leading mercantile firms in town. The work was done by D. Humphrey, one of the employees, and we think it with compare favorably with similar work turned out in the first-class shops of larger cities. Altogether, the establishment is one of usefulness, and a credit to the community.

RAILROAD QUESTION.—We call attention to a letter, in another column, from our representative in the Assembly, Hon. J. M. Kelly, on this subject. Mr. Kelly has shown a commendable spirit in bringing the question, in the various shapes it has assumed, with that careful consideration which is due to a matter of so much importance to his constituents. He proposes to take no hasty action in the premises, but rather to be governed by the known wishes and requirements of the citizens of Yolo, and with this purpose in view, he invites those who feel disposed, to give expression to their views on the subject.

REVIVAL.—The interest felt in the proceedings of the Quarterly Meeting at the M. E. Church has led to a much longer continuance of the services than was originally intended, and during the week quite a revival has been going on. There were nine conversions, eight of whom united with the Church on last Sunday, and at present there seems to be no flagging of earnestness in the object of the meeting, which we learn will continue over Sunday. W. C. Curry, the resident parson, has been assisted by Presiding Elder Hill and Rev. P. Grove.

THE WEATHER.—During the week there has been but little variation in the affairs of the weather. It has been "settled," that is to say we have had an almost incessant fall of rain. A native of "Webfoot" visited our office on Thursday and expressed his opinion to the effect that California had won the right to bear the epithet of "Rainy State," which had been gratuitously bestowed on his own country. We could not dissent without a further consideration of the subject.

DETAINED FOR POSTAGE.—Letters addressed to the following named persons, are detained in the Postoffice in this place for non-payment of postage: E. P. Figg, Sacramento; Mrs. Henrietta Carling, Dayton, Nevada; Thomas Owen, Smith's Ranch; Geo. W. Owen, Smith's Ranch; Wm. L. Smith, St. Helena, Cal.; Miss Annie D. Gaddis, Prairie P. O., Cal.

MEETING TO-NIGHT.—Our readers will remember that an adjourned meeting to consider the railroad project, will be held at the Court House, this evening. We would also call attention to a communication on the subject, in another column.

"GATHERING FLOWERS." Lines suggested on the death of little Frank, son of M. A. Woods, will be found on the first page of to-day's paper. This tribute of respect, by a friend of the bereaved, was received too late for publication in our last issue.

MAILS.—The mails have been more regular this week than could have been reasonably expected. On account however of disconnections in other counties, we do not get our usual supply of mountain exchanges.

PETIT LARCENY.—A man named Kennedy was arrested by Sheriff Minis, yesterday, on a charge of petit larceny. The defendant pleaded guilty before the Justice's Court, and was fined $35.

ROADS.—The roads in all directions have become very bad, and traveling is now confined to light vehicles and horsemen.

CORRESPONDENCE.—A letter from "W" received too late for insertion in this number will be published next week.

CHINESE THEATRE.—The walls of the new Chinese theatre, on Jackson street, above Kearny, says the Examiner, of Jan 22d, are up and the building inclosed. We learn that it is to be opened in a few days by a first-class company from China.

ENOCH ARDEN CASE.—An Enoch Arden case has been decided in one of the Courts at Rochester. The litigants were two young men, who, in their friendship at the breaking out of the rebellion, had agreed that if the one who was married and who had enlisted should fall, the one who remained at home should marry the widow. The soldier went to the war. After a while the report came that he was killed in battle, and his wife mourned for her lost husband. He did not return even at the end of the war, and at length the widow became the wife of the husband's friend, and their joy was crowned by the birth of a handsome child. A short time ago that long absent soldier reappeared, explained the reason of his long absence, and claimed his wife. The second husband was loth to surrender his wife, who was the mother of his child also, and he declined to give her right to the woman was submitted to a legal tribunal, and, on the last day of 1867, the Court decided that the first marriage was binding, and the wife must pass to the first husband.

STANTON'S REINSTATEMENT.—The Senate, by a vote of 33 to 6, passed a resolution not sustaining the President's suspension of Stanton. It is the settled purpose of Congress to vex, annoy and humiliate the President in every conceivable manner. In this affair with Stanton he is not to be much pitied. Had he discharged his duty to the country he would have removed this infamous character from the war office long before the passage of the Tenure of Office act. He owes his present unpleasant situation to his own temporizing policy. The question now is, how will he act? Will he submit to have Stanton forced upon him as one of his counselors, or will he refuse to hold any official communication with him?—[Vanguard.]

SUITS ON OFFICIAL BONDS.—Assistant United States District Attorney Morrison has commenced suits against the following Postmasters and their sureties for failure to make full returns to the Postmaster-General of moneys received for postage: William G. Sull, Postmaster at Los Angeles, for $155; Juan M. A. Sepulveda and Frederick W. Koll, sureties on the bond for $3,000. John G. Parker, Postmaster at Visalia, for $1,082 88—sureties, William Buchanan and Isaac W. Lewis, on bond for $1,200. Edwin F. Bean, Deputy Postmaster at Nevada, for $872 31—N. Turner and E. P. Farnham sureties, in the sum of $5,000.

THE OLD FELLOWS OF SAN FRANCISCO propose to organize and incorporate a Mutual Aid Association, whereby a fund will be provided, from which the widow, or whoever may be designated by the will, shall receive two thousand dollars ready money upon the death of a member. Whenever a death occurs, each member is assessed two dollars, for the benefit of the aid fund; and that is all the premium or assessment required, save an admission fee of five dollars. The only paid officer being a Secretary, who is to collect assessments. The plan looks feasible.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Mons. Seigrist, who is engaged in training a circus troupe at the new amphitheater on sixth street, between K and L, met with a serious accident yesterday while walking beside a horse on which his son was performing some feat. It appears that by some mishap a foreleg of the horse came in contact with the knee of Seigrist, breaking away the knee-bone from the ligaments which hold it, and otherwise injuring his leg. The injury is very painful, and will probably lame Mons. Seigrist for life. —[Record.]

SUICIDE LIVES.—The Solano Press has the following: On last Thursday morning Capt. Frank Hicks, a young man who has been visiting some friends in Fairfield, went out hunting; by an unhappy accident his gun was discharged and his left hand was badly shattered—the dexter and second fingers being completely ruined. Dr. Chasing dressed the wounds and the patient has had every attention and care. Capt. Hicks has had very hard fortune here; his wife died a year or two ago, he had the misfortune to lose a vessel some time since, and now this accident has seriously maimed him for life.

UNREASONABLE.—The Mongrels complain of Democrats, says the Examiner, because they are unwilling to treat negroes as the equals of white men. This is unreasonable. Why not complain of the Almighty? He made negroes unequal to white men, and so treating them is but recognizing His decrees. Let your blasphemous anathemas then be hurled at the negro's Maker; for He alone is to blame, if blame there be.

WELL UP.—Hay is in Virginia City $100 per ton. It is said that throughout the whole Truckee Meadows there are not over 400 tons of hay for sale, so the chances are that the price of the article will go up instead of coming down.

ON THE WAY.—Joseph Lawrence, convicted of murder in the second degree, in Nevada county, passed through this city yesterday, in charge of Sheriff Geary, en route for San Quentin, to which the prisoner is sentenced for the space of ten years. —[Record.]

"Papa, What is a Newspaper, and What Does it Contain?"

Organs that gentlemen play, my boy,
To answer the taste of the day, my boy;
Whatever it be,
They hit on the key,
And pipe in full concert away, my boy.
News from all countries and climes, my boy,
Advertisements, essays, and rhymes, my boy,
Mixed up with all sorts
Of (flying) reports,
And published at regular times, my boy.
Articles, able and wise, my boy,
At least in the editor's eyes, my boy,
And logic so grand,
That few understand,
To what in the world it applies, my boy.
Statistics, reflections, reviews, my boy,
Little scraps to instruct and amuse, my boy,
And lengthy debate
Upon matters of State,
For wise-headed folks to pursue, my boy.
The funds as they were and are, my boy,
The quibbles and tricks of the bar, my boy,
And every trick
A clever critique
On some rising theatrical star, my boy.
The age of Jupiter's moons, my boy,
The stealing of somebody's spoons, my boy,
The state of the crops,
The style of the fops,
And the wit of the public buffoons, my boy.
Lists of all physical ills, my boy,
Banished by somebody's pills, my boy,
Till you ask with surprise,
Why any one dies,
Or what's the disorder that kills? my boy.
Who has got married, to whom, my boy,
Who were cut off in the bar, my boy,
Who has a birth,
On this sorrow-stained earth,
Who totters first to the tomb, my boy.
The prices of cattle and grain, my boy,
Directions to dig and drain, my boy,
But 'twould take me too long,
To tell you in song,
A quarter of what they contain, my boy.
